DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 14-19 withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to nonelected Groups II and III of method of making a support block having a spray nozzle and nozzle housing, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 2/28/05.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference characters "36" and "32" have both been used to designate recess chamber (see page 6). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

3. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: Reference character "36" on pages 7-9. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 5 and 8-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 5 line 3, "said first fluid passage" lacks clear antecedent basis.

Claim 8 is confusing because it appears that the "inlet" should be in the second outer surface and the "outlet" in the first outer surface.

Claim 12, "the block outlet" lacks clear antecedent basis.

Claim 13, "fist" appears incorrect.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-11 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Russian document (SU 1486603).

Russian document discloses a cutting tool assembly comprising: a support block (1) to be secured to a moving element of a mining machine, comprising: a protection sleeve (2) fixed into said support block; a replaceable spray nozzle housing (5) welded onto said support block; a block fluid passage (4) located in said support block wherein said replaceable nozzle housing is in fluid communication with said block fluid passage.

The support block has a first outer surface (this is considered as the outside of member (1)) and a second outer surface (this is considered as inside of member (1)) and the block passage communicates fluid between said first outer surface and said second outer surface. The replaceable nozzle housing is fixed to said first outer surface (see Fig. 1). The upstream portion and said downstream portion are substantially straight so as to permit a drill to be inserted into said fluid passage for cleaning. A cutting tool (3) said cutting tool extends through said protective sleeve.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Russian document '603 in view of either British documents (GB 2117675, 1584635).

Russian document discloses the invention substantially as claimed. However, Russian document is silent about the nozzle inlet end being at least twice as great as the block fluid outlet. British documents both teach the nozzle inlet end being at least twice as great as the block fluid outlet (see Fig. 1 and 1,3). It would have been considered obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Russian document by making the nozzle inlet end being at least twice as great as the block fluid outlet as taught by either British documents in order allow for any machining intolerance.
